The Welsh Actress Catherine Zeta Jones

- ① Catherine Zeta Jones knows many famous people, and her friends include Steven Spielberg and Sean Connery. How did she get on the road to stardom?
- ② Zeta Jones was born on 25 September 1969 and she grew up in a small village outside Swansea in south Wales. Her mother started taking her to dance classes at the age of five. "I really wanted to be an actress as long as I can remember," she says. "I knew what I wanted to do, and even as a teenager I never had any other job- I just wanted to be on stage."
- ③ Her parents drove her around Wales when she was performing in musicals like Bugsy Malone. By the time she was 16, she was playing the lead in the London production of the musical 42nd Street. Even then, she was working to reach the top. "Every night after the show, everyone went out. But I knew I had to perform the next night, so I always went home."
- ④ At twenty-one, Zeta Jones had her first taste of fame in a successful British TV series. But her big break came when she went to Los Angeles in 1996. Steven Spielberg happened to see her in a TV version of Titanic, (A) _____. He was looking for someone to play opposite Antonio Banderas in The Mask of Zorro. Zeta Jones had a screen test, met Banderas, (B) _____. Since then, she has been getting lots of offers, but she has chosen her film parts carefully. After Zorro, she had another hit in 1999 with Entrapment, a thriller which she co-stars with Sean Connery.
- ⑤ She has recently been living life in the fast lane (C) _____. Will it last? She knows that she can only do her best. "If you keep on doing the best job you possibly can, then somewhere along the line, something happens," she says. "You know, Hollywood success stories happen to you, and it's nice."
